

Michael Sluder

Senior Vice President, Chief Investment Officer

As Chief Investment Officer for The Family Office at Synovus, Michael leads the investment group managing more than $4 billion in client family assets. His responsibilities include managing the firm's largest and most complex client relationships. In addition, Michael chairs the firm's Investment Committee that sets asset allocation strategies and determines the selection of investment managers.

Michael has 20 years of experience in the financial services industry. Prior to joining the Synovus team in 2006, he served as an Investment Manager for another family office and was an Assistant Bond Trader with SouthTrust Bank.

Michael earned a Master's in Economics and a B.A. in Economics from the University of Alabama. He also achieved the Charter Financial Analyst® (CFA®) designation.

Michael serves as a Trustee for the Ridge United Methodist Church, and is a member in the Alabama Society of Financial Analysts.
